Brooklyn Defeated by New York in the Second Championship Game-Players Reserved by League Clubs-Racing Events.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 19.-The closing game between the Columbus and Indianapolis teams to-day was lost by the former by battery errors. Duke, who has been playing in Minneapolis, was put in by Columbus, and gave men bases on balls one after the other until they were filled, and the visitors got in an occasional hit which counted in each instance. Doyle also had several passed balls, which were at a time when they counted for runs. Andrews sprained his ankle in the seventh inning, and was obliged to retire. Denny went to third, Seery to short, and Easton, of the Columbus club, played left field. The game was loosely played throughout, and was witnessed by about 500 people. It was closed in the eight inning on account of

New York Wins at Brooklyn. NEW YORK, Oct. 19.-The second game in the world's series between the Giants and the Brooklyns was played before a tremendous crowd, at Washington Park, Brooklyn, to-day. The Giants redeemed themselves and won rather easily, outbatting and outfielding their rivals. The crowd, which occupied every inch of advantage space in the inclosure, seemed impartial and cheered both teams heartily. Smith's and Visner's errors were especially costly. Lynch was one of the umpires to-day, receiving his terms, $600 for the series. A good deal of money was wagered on the result of the game, the ruling odds being 5 to 4 in favor of New York. Crane was wild at first, but did remarkable work after the second inning. Type-Writers with and Without Bangs. San Francisco Chronicle.

A St. Louis business man recently wanted a second-hand type-writer, so he inserted an advertisement in the morning papers an advertisement in the morning papers reading: "I want a fair or good type-writer," and gave his address. He received one reply from a man who had a machine for sale and seventy-eight replies from girls, who gave their speed per minute, with many details that were not particularly relevant, such as the color of hair and eyes. Nearly all pleaded great necessity for work and offered to begin on any terms. The incident convinced this man, as it would probably convince most people, that the supply of female type-writers and stenographers is largely in excess of the demand, raphers is largely in excess of the demand and that the language needs a new word to describe the type-writer who wears bangs. Human Nature in New York.

A junk man came into possession of a big bundle of letter from the office of President Depew, of the New York Central, recently. Being a man of intelligence, he was not slow in recognizing the value of the find. Now the metropolis is edified by the appearance of several newspaper colums per week of requests for passes from people of more or less local prominence. A perusal of a few of these notes leads to the conclu-sion that New York modesty has been taking a vacation.
